

8:30	Registration and coffee
9:15	Welcome	Social Value Portal
9:25	Keynote: how social value became our business model Josh Littlejohn, The Social Bite
9:45	Building on Scotland's social value culture Nathan Goode, Head of Strategy and Consultancy, The Social Value Portal
10:15	Panel Discussion: where should business be trying to make a difference? Panellists to include: Josh Littlejohn, the Social Bite; Nicola Barclay, Homes for Scotland; Martin Valenti, Scottish Land Commission; Teresa Bray, Changeworks; Gill Henry, Business Development Director, Cruden Homes TBC Moderator: Nick Rowan, Balfour Beatty
10:45	Keynote: housing strategy - why the evidence points to a social-value led approach. Professor Kenneth Gibb, UK Collaborative Centre for Housing Evidence
11:10	Break
11:30	Launchpad: Creating Opportunities for Inclusive Growth. Session led by Martin Valenti, Scottish Land Commission
11:50	Workshop 1 – Prosperous & Productive Places Can a more strategic & entrepreneurial approach to vacant & derelict land unlock sustainable inclusive growth? Professor Ken Gibb, UCCHE ; Phil Prentice, Scotland's Towns Partnerships ; Nicola Barclay, Homes for Scotland ; Sarah Boyack, Scottish Federation of Housing Associations ; Discussions led by Martin Valenti SLC	Workshop 2 – Financing the Future Can Scotland pioneer finance with a social purpose as the new norm? Louise Wilson, Abundance ; Simon Chisholm, Resonance ; Alastair Davies, Social Investment Scotland ; Peter Ewart, Caledonian Economics ; Graham Precey, formerly chairman of Group Corporate responsibility, Legal & General ; Gregor Paterson-Jones, UN Capital Development Fund	Workshop 3 – Procuring for Inclusive Growth How can buying decisions deliver social value and inclusive growth? Mairi Martin, Cornerstone ; Teresa Bray, Changeworks ; Jo Mitchell, Sustainable Procurement, Scottish Government ; Graham Box, Sodexo . Chaired by Robin Fallas, Partner MacRoberts solicitors
12:30	Plenary: Going above and beyond. Embedding social impact in construction delivery. Discussion led by Nick Rowan, New Business Director, Balfour Beatty and Sophie Stephens, Head of Sustainability and Social Value, Balfour Beatty
13:00	Award: President's Medal for services to sustainability Presentation by the Royal Geographical Society of Scotland
13:10	Lunch
14:00	Strategic overview – delivering sustainable social value How to achieve system change (or how to add $4bn to the economy) Richard Whatman, Corra Foundation Can we move from binary to networked social value? The evidence Agnese Mizia & Nathan Goode, Social Value Portal
14:30	Introducing the Social Value Marketplace
14:45	Workshop 4 – Towns and Cities How can social equity be built into the future of our urban places? Phil Prentice, Scottish Towns Partnership John Cunningham, Borders Biscuits Louise Wilson, Abundance Benjamin Napier, Citizens Advice Edinburgh; Dawn Muspratt – Our Power	Workshop 5 – Sustainable Infrastructure Can physical infrastructure catalyse sustainable social capital? Naila Akram, Balfour Beatty; Paul Dodd, Scottish Futures Trust;	Workshop 6 – Enterprising Communities How do we secure the future of Scotland's communities outside the cities? Martin Finnigan, Caledonian Economics; Rob Forrest, GreenPower International; Peter MacColl, Nesta; Helen Forsyth, Berwickshire Housing Association
15:45	Break
16:30	Interactive: participating in the Social Value Marketplace (make your vote count!)
17:15	Next steps – Nathan Goode, Director, The Social Value Portal
17:30	Close of formal proceedings

DRAFT